

Making a Bibliography

At the end of her report, Sarah lists her sources in a bibliography. As Sarah gathered information, she made a separate bibliography card for each source. Then she put the cards in alphabetical order. To create a bibliography for her report, she simply wrote or typed the information from the cards.

Here is the information from one of Sarah's bibliography cards. Can you find the title, the author, the publisher, and the date of publication?

Pendleton, June Peregrine Falcons:
Saved by the Law Nature Publications
2000

Other Kinds of Entries

The example above shows what to record in your bibliography for a book. You may also need to record information from other sources. Some of them are shown below. Pay attention to order of the information and the punctuation.

Magazines

Last name of author, first name. "Title of Article." Title of Magazine date of magazine: page numbers of article.

Encyclopedias

Author (if given). "Title of Article." Title of Encyclopedia. Year published: page number.

Web Sites

Author (if given). "Title of Article." Sponsor of Web site. Date of article. Web site Address (URL)

CD-ROM Sources

Author (if given). Source (such as an encyclopedia). Year published. Keyword: _____
